

I support rider education and driver education. I do not support NHTSA or DOT attempting to coerce states into adopting laws which the state's voters have already decided against. Please refocus road safety efforts toward prevention of accidents by increasing driver awareness through education.